

SOCIALISTS' BIG FUND

CLAIM THEY WILL BEGIN THE NEXT NATIONAL CAMPAIGN WITH A FUND OF NEARLY A MILLION DOLLARS—ORGANIZERS ALREADY IN THE FIELD WORKING FOR THE NEXT GREAT CONTEST.

LONDON, Nov. 24.—The annual Thanksgiving banquet of the American Society at the Hotel Cecil tonight was marked by the presentation of a portrait of himself to Ambassador Choate. The picture was painted by Hubert Herkimer and was paid for by subscription by the members of the society.

An unusual note for such a gathering was introduced by Sir Edward Clarke, who, in proposing Choate's health, sarcastically derided the title, "American Ambassador," declaring that the word "American" implied domination over the whole of the Western Hemisphere, which the United States does not possess and is not entitled to, as Great Britain territorially had a larger power on the American continent than the United States. He suggested that a more suitable title would be "Unona" signifying United States of North America. Having, in the first public criticism here of the State Department's suggestion that embassies hereafter shall be called "American," thus uttered a respectful protest against the assumption of the larger name, Sir Edward proceeded to refer to the miserable underpayment of American judges and America's waste of energies in providing for survivors of the Civil War and in building ironclads which she would never use.

Ambassador Choate, replying, said that Americans were quite satisfied with their name and then referred to the recent election in the United States as a splendid tribute to a great man. Having remarked upon the regeneration of public life in America regardless of party, Choate alluded to the ever-growing friendship between Great Britain and America as a reason for Thanksgiving, and added: "I asked Lord Lansdowne if he was ready to negotiate a treaty of arbitration."

"Why," said Lord Lansdowne, "it goes without saying."

Continuing, Choate maintained that many things go without saying between Great Britain and the United States; above all, that they should avoid all possible causes of offense and settle their differences by peaceful means. He paid a high tribute to the Archbishop of Canterbury "rediscovery of America" and dilated upon the value of visits to America by such men as the Archbishop and John Morley.

PUNAHOU BEAT H. A. C. EASILY

A GOOD GAME OF BALL ON SATURDAY WON BY THE LIGHT MEN WITH A SCORE OF 16 TO 5.

The Punahou defeated the H. A. C. football team on Saturday afternoon by 16 to 5 and thereby sprung the surprise of the already young season. After their defeat by the Males, and with regard to the much heavier weight of the H. A. C's, the Punahous were not supposed to have even a look-in but over-confidence on the part of the big fellows together with a vast improvement in the Punahous did the trick. The score was three touch-downs and a goal for the Punahous in the first half, 16 to 0 and in the second half the H. A. C. got a single touch-down.

The teams and officials were: Punahou—L. Judd, center; A. Judd, right guard; John and Crabbe, left guard; Alexander, right tackle; Hatch, left tackle; Damon, right end; Robinson, left end; G. Judd, quarter; Johnson and De Hall, right half; Spilvaio, Turner, left half; Macfarlane full.

H. A. C.—Kauhaue, center; Hough-talling and McDuffie, right guard; I. Cockett and H. Cockett, left guard; Lane and Tilton, right tackle; Joy and Keawe, left tackle; Gleason and Perry, right end; Andrews, left end; Almeida and Blaisdell, quarter; Sullivan and Ensue, right half; Dawes and Mayes, left half; Kanae, full.

EFFORT TO INCORPORATE THE PAPER FOR TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS.

WAILUKU, December 3.—An effort is now being made by C. L. Clement, business manager of the Maui News, to incorporate the paper for $10,000 and buy out the business from G. B. Robertson, the present editor and proprietor. It is Clement's intention to use the money for buying new types, ruling machine, and make the printing office a first class one, so that all kinds of job work could be done there.

The big drum cylinder press for the News is already on the ground, and will be installed next week; at least work will be commenced on it during the coming week.

Once before Laurie Crook, now of Honolulu, tried to buy out the paper, but he did not get subscriptions for the stock.

COPTIC SAILED.

The S. S. Coptic sailed for the Orient at 5 p. m. Saturday. She was delayed an hour in sailing as the carpenters required that additional time in which to fit up the bunks in the steerage for about 200 Japanese passengers who departed from this place for the Orient.

SAILING SHIPS DEPART.

The bark George Curtis sailed in ballast yesterday morning for Newcastle for a load of coal for this place. The German training ship Herzogin Sophia Charlotte sailed in the afternoon for Sydney. A number of friends of the officers and cadets were at the wharf to see the German vessel depart. The vessel will load for the United Kingdom. Captain Zander said he expected to return to this port next year with a cargo.

QUICK RESULTS.

It is seldom necessary to take a second dose of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. One pill will, in most cases, relieve all distress caused by headache, backache, neuralgia, nervousness, ear-ache, stomach ache, etc. When not entirely relieved, take another in 30 minutes. That's about the limit to which you endure pain. 25 doses, 25c. Never sold in bulk.

ELKS EXPRESS THEIR SORROW

SOLEMN SERVICES BY THE LOCAL LODGE HELD YESTERDAY IN HONOR OF DECEASED MEMBERS

The annual Session of Sorrow was celebrated by Honolulu Lodge, No. 616 Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks at the Opera House yesterday afternoon by a large gathering of members of the order accompanied by friends of both sexes. It is laid down in the rules of the order that the first Sunday in each December shall be dedicated to the remembrance of those of the brotherhood who have passed away and it is ever the keen desire of the members to make each successive ceremony more impressive and beautiful than that which preceded it. Certainly yesterday's service left nothing to be desired. They were impressive in their very simplicity and beautiful in the exquisite rendition of many vocal and instrumental numbers.

There was but one member, Jacob Bearwald, who had passed away during the year, but there were seven Elks altogether who have died since the establishment of the lodge here some four years ago.

The effect as the services began was very beautiful. On the stage was a large white cross outlined in electric lights and the hall was kept in semi-darkness. The officers of the lodge were seated on the stage, the body of the hall being taxed to accommodate the large attendance.

A dirge "The Gate of Heaven" by the Hawaiian Band began the ceremonies, and this was followed by the Elks' ritual service given under the leadership of Exalted Ruler J. H. Fisher assisted by the chaplain Rev. A. Mackintosh and officers of the local lodge. Brother J. Hastings Howland sang "I Will Give You Rest." "The Lord Is My Light" by Mrs. C. B. Cooper followed and the eulogy on the dead brother was pronounced by Bro. J. A. Hughes. The "Miserere" from "Il Trovatore" was sung by Mrs. C. B. Cooper and Will Ellis behind the scenes, the Hawaiian Band playing the accompaniment. Bro. Hugo Herzer sang "O Dry Those Tears," and Bro. A. B. Loebenstein of Hilo Lodge No. 759 made the oration of the day charging the members of the brotherhood with the observance of the principles of Charity, Justice, Brotherly Love and Fidelity.

Mrs. J. Hartung sang "O Divine Redeemer" and the band played the prayer from "Tannhauser." After the benediction had been pronounced by chaplain Mackintosh the whole assemblage sang the closing ode.

The memorial service was in charge of a committee consisting of Messrs. Frank E. Thompson, James D. Dougherty, A. E. Murphy, J. J. Dunne and W. D. Adams.

The accompanist was Mrs. Gerard Barton, the violinist, Mrs. A. B. Ingalls and the organist, Mr. Gerard Barton. The officers of the Honolulu Elks are: J. H. Fisher, Exalted Ruler; George H. Angus, Esteemed Leading Knight; H. E. Murray, Esteemed Loyal Knight; E. M. Watson, Esteemed Lecturing Knight; H. H. Simpson, Secretary; J. A. Hughes, Treasurer; H. P. Roth, Esquire; Frank I. Winter, Inner Guard; E. E. Hartman, Tyler.

Trustees—Frank E. Thompson, A. E. Murphy, Frank E. Richardson; Chaplain, Rev. A. Mackintosh; Organist, Henry E. Berger.

TELEPHONE ACROSS CONTINENT

SUCCESSFUL TESTS OF AN APPLIANCE INVENTED BY A ROCHESTER MAN.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 20.—Professor Howard Minchins of the University of Rochester made a crucial test of an invention which seems bound to revolutionize the telephone service of the country. John Dennis, a noted electrician and newspaper man of this city, has devised a method of overcoming the line impedance which interferes so greatly in long-distance operations of the telephone. The test was a breakdown test, and, at its close, Professor Minchins said to the newspaper writers:

"The invention is a perfect one, and, moreover, the appliance is commercially within the reach of every company. It means practically telephoning across the ocean or from New York to San Francisco with no more difficulty than from one street to another."

"Investigations I have made of Dennis' new appliance for overcoming line impedance and counter electric motive force in telephoning has convinced me that it possesses complete efficiency. What is more, the end sought for has been attained by the appliance of principles that I have never before seen applied to electricity. In my opinion, the new appliance is inexpensive and will prove entirely practical for commercial purposes."

A Timely Suggestion.—This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is certain to be needed before the winter is over, and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system. In almost every instance a severe cold may be warded off by taking this remedy freely as soon as the first indication of the cold appears. There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains no harmful substance. It is pleasant to take—both adults and children like it. Buy it and you will get the best. It always cures. Sold by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., agents for Hawaii.

LAND TITLES IN THE PHILIPPINES

TROUBLES OVER CHURCH PROPERTY AWAITING SETTLEMENT BY SECRETARY TAFT.

WASHINGTON, November 25.—Monsignor Ambrose Agius, the new papal delegate to the Philippines, today called upon Secretary of State Hay and Assistant Secretary Oliver of the War Department. In making inquiries about affairs in the Philippines, he encountered some complexities which determined him to remain here until the return to Washington of Secretary Taft, who is now in Panama.

Conflicting claims as to the titles to the buildings on the lands purchased by the United States from the Catholic religious orders now constitute an important question. Monsignor Agius is anxious that the courts in the Philippines be given power to fix these titles beyond dispute. Regarding this subject Monsignor Agius and Monsignor Falconio, the papal delegates at Washington today conferred with Colonel Edwards, chief of the Bureau of Insular Affairs of the War Department.

The Government survey of several haciendas owned by the Philippine Sugar Estates Development Company showed them to be short to the value of several hundred thousand dollars. A joint survey has been requested by the Government. These properties were formerly owned by the Dominican order. Questions have arisen as to titles to the large haciendas of Binan, Santa Rosa, Santa Cruz de Malabon, together with a portion of Lolambay.

It is the opinion of the Government attorney who examined the titles that they lay in a separate and independent foundation, which was never joined in the conveyance to the Philippine Sugar Estates Development Company. The full amount of the purchase price aggregates $3,671,567 to be definitely determined according to the resurvey.

Bind Your World's Fair Art Portfolios

These magnificent views are well worthy of permanent possession and study. They are of value for all time. There is no need to wait until the whole series is issued, for as a rule some of them are so soiled and worn as to render them unfit for binding, but you can begin now and keep each part in good condition.

The beautiful binder which we offer is made of the best English silk cloth, embossed in gold, the design being artistic and attractive, making it a handsome ornament for a center table. As there will be a tremendous demand for the binders, they have been manufactured in large quantities, thus bringing the price within easy reach.
